

Dale District

Kelly E. Miller Chesterfield County Board of Supervisors

Kelly E. Miller has served the Dale District on the Board of Supervisors since 2000, serving as chairman in 2002.

He is a 30-year resident of the Dale District who served 18 years as a member of the Chesterfield Planning Commission, including several terms as chairman.

Miller was born in Georgia and grew up in North Carolina. He received a bachelor's degree from Guilford College and law degree from Tulane University. He served as general attorney with the U.S.

Defense Department and served four years as assistant attorney general for the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Engaged in the private practice of law since 1969, he has maintained a law office in the Meadowbrook area of the Dale District for the past 20 years. Miller also served as Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court.

He is a member of the Chesterfield Republican Committee and has been active in numerous civic organizations, including the Parent-Teacher Association. He is a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church. His wife, Edith, recently retired after 30 years as a teacher in Chesterfield County. He has two daughters, one of whom is a teacher in the county while the other is a certified public accountant. His four grandchildren attend school in Chesterfield County.

Miller currently serves on the Richmond Regional Planning District Commission, Capital Region Airport Commission and the Maymont Foundation.